Flore news

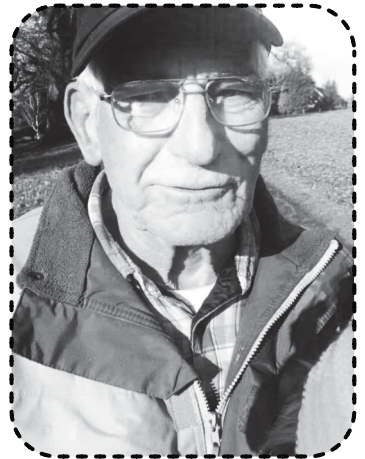

In Loving Memory of David Arthur Botterill (Dave)

David Arthur Botterill passed away on 4 March 2025, leaving behind a legacy of warmth, laughter, and cherished memories. To those who knew him best, he was more than just “Dave” — he was “me duck,” Dad, Pap, Pappy, Zippy, Brother, and Uncle... or to the brave one, part of the ‘Golden Oldies’... Whatever name you knew him by, there’s no doubt you carry a fond memory of him in your heart.

He was a devoted husband to his wife Patricia, a loving father to three children, Denise, Tina, and Steven, and a constant source of strength and kindness.

A Lunch in Lent

Thank you to all those who made soup, served soup and ate soup! £190 was raised for the Daventry Food Bank.

Walking in Flore and beyond

Days are longer now, this year's new lambs are rushing about in lush fields. The dawn chorus is waking us early. New life is everywhere. Spring is inviting us to get up close to nature and enjoy.

We have some lovely Foot Paths, Byways and Bridle Ways in our Parish. Our village website has various walks: <https://www.flore-pc.gov.uk/flore-walks>. Find two new walks this month (#6 and 7). With the OS Maps App, you can explore further afield. If you find any obstacles or issues during your walks please let me know.

For those who walk the various Flore Parish Walks (Footpaths, Bridleways and Byways) does anyone know where/what the answer to this hint is:

'In commemoration of the marriage to a King in waiting'

If you know the answer, send a picture to me, Nigel (answer revealed next month!).

Pilgrimage — Some of us in Flore have been on pilgrimage further afield. If you are interested in talking about pilgrimage, please feel free to make contact.

Looking Forward to a New Season of Home Produce

Often referred to as the “hungry gap” in harvesting your own produce, April is a good month to get your new year's goodies under way.

Plant hardy vegetables like early potatoes, onions, shallots, and garlic. Sow peas, broad beans, carrots, radishes, and turnips directly into the soil. For leafy crops, try sowing spinach, chard, and lettuce. If you have space in a greenhouse or on a windowsill, start tender crops like tomatoes, peppers, aubergines, and cucumbers indoors. You can also plant out perennial herbs like thyme, rosemary, and sage. Remember to protect young plants from late frosts using cloches or fleece, and keep sowing succession crops for a steady harvest throughout the season.

Flore Parish Council News

Flood Warden Update

Last year a large tree fell into the river Nene by the tin bridge causing flooding of the field, but this has now been cleared by the landowner. The Parish Council have engaged a local contractor to install an additional drain off pipe on the corner of Nether Lane just before the Mill. This often floods because the road drain blocks up with leaves and debris, so we hope the new high level drain will reduce the flooding depth so that cars can pass through without getting waterlogged or stuck. Brockhall Road; Severe flooding occurred in November, which resulted in a lot of problems in John Campbell Close and the Brockhall Road. Some of the residents have engaged a local contractor to clear ditches and dig out overflow gulleys to lower the flood levels. WNC Highways have been requested to clear the overgrown ditches and to maintain them regularly. Sandbags are an essential defence against flooding into homes, and we have some free of charge which are available from me, please call 07966 341221 if you would like some. If you leave it until floods occur you may find they have all gone. Block paving is very popular, but remember this increases surface water run off with the risk of flooding either to your home or your neighbours. If you install block paving on your drive, please ensure that it is porous or a drainage channel is installed to divert the flow into the surface water drainage system.

Finally if you attend the Parish meeting in April I will give a short presentation on Flood mitigation.

Stagecoach Bus Service

A request for a larger bus on the 7:32 AM Daventry-Northampton route has been submitted, but no response has been received yet.

Join us at our Annual Parish Meeting

Speakers this year will include John Thomason (Flooding Issues) and Helen Frost (The Land Army).

The meeting will be held in the Millennium Hall at 7:30pm

Closed Churchyard – Tree Work

WNC has been approached regarding the removal of a conifer that frequently sheds branches. Quotes for the work have been received and will be discussed once confirmation on planning consent is acquired.

Layby by Holiday Inn

The two caravans have been removed, and some litter picking has taken place. The council is considering the reinstallation of bins and will follow up with WNC.

Bypass Safety Audit

The Parish Council has requested that Unitary Councillors initiate a safety audit of the bypass to assess possible safety improvements.

Bus Shelter Windows

The windows at the White Hart bus shelter have been replaced at a cost of over £900. To save money, the work was carried out by Flore Parish Councillors and volunteers. To reduce the need for further replacement the Parish Council kindly asks that villagers don't stick flyers or notices on the new windows with sellotape.

Road Closures – May Day Celebrations

The Avenue and Bricketts Lane will be closed for celebrations between 12th-17th May:

- 12th-15th May: 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM
- 16th May: 1:00 PM - 3:00 PM
- 17th May: 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM

New Village Walks

Two new walking routes (Walks 6 & 7) have been added to the Flore Parish Website: <https://www.flore-pc.gov.uk/flore-walks>

Next Meeting Date – 8th April

Our next meeting is on the 8th April 7:30pm in the Chapel School Rooms.

A message from Flore school

What another busy term we have had at Flore CE Primary School.

Some children from Key Stage 2 took part in the South Northants District Archery competition at Moulton School at the beginning of March. I am so proud of the team and despite us being a small village school this will be the third county final that we have qualified for in the academic year. The team were all very consistent at scoring highly in each of the four areas: traditional target, jigsaw target, tin can alley and unlock the drawbridge. Well done team – I am so pleased to share the amazing news with the Flore community that the team won!

World Book Day on Thursday 6th March saw our children dressing up as their favourite character from a book or they came in their pyjamas. They spent the day completing a wide range of activities and in the afternoon the whole school came together to read and they shared books in the fabulous sunshine.

All of our Key Stage 2 children took part in Young Voices at Birmingham NEC this month. They were part of a choir with 5500 other children from across the country. They spent the afternoon in rehearsals and then performed to a live audience in the evening. It was a very special occasion and lots of wonderful memories were made from this experience.

As part of British Science Week, we hosted an 'Amazing Animal Adaptations Workshop'. The children had a wonderful morning meeting a whole range of animals and learning lots of new facts. They even got to stroke/hold some of them! The children were all very excited and they had an amazing session. As always, their behaviour was exemplary and they were extremely respectful throughout. Well done all!

We are really looking forward to our May Day Celebrations which are being held on Saturday 17th May. We hope that you all will be able to come to this great community event.

Why do people come to our little butcher's shop tucked away on a farm? It's not just the quality of our produce, it's the little things. We try to provide people with what they want - a smaller cut of steak, a single chicken breast, some advice on which cut of meat will be best, how to cook it, and the ability to order something special. Customers chat with us and enjoy seeing a friendly face. Knowing that they will be welcomed at the door and thanked when they leave. We offer to help when you need a hand carrying things to the car. We listen to your ideas and try to evolve as your requirements change.

Letter from the Rector

Dear Friends

As Easter approaches this year, I invite you to take a moment to imagine the scene on the first Easter Sunday. Maybe have look at Luke 24:1-12 to help paint in the picture and see yourself in the role of one of the women who supported and cared for Jesus.

Through the scheming and brutality of the religious leaders and the Roman governor, your beloved leader is dead. It feels like the end of the world. In one last act of devotion, you make your way to the tomb taking spices and ointments to anoint Jesus' body. Grief-stricken as you are, it is a difficult, tear-filled journey.

But when you get to the place where Jesus is laid, the stone has been rolled away and the tomb is empty...apart from a pile of funeral shrouds. At once you are frightened, puzzled and uncertain – what are you to make of this? Has Jesus' body been taken or has something happened that is beyond your understanding? Is Jesus alive somehow? You thought this was the end of all your hopes and dreams – has God managed to confound your expectations? As soon as the mysterious men in dazzling clothes appear, you're reminded that Jesus had predicted he would rise again, and rush back into the city to tell the disciples and the rest of Jesus' followers that he has risen, he is alive! Oh, how good you feel now, grief turned to gladness and joyful amazement.

It is strange that however long we have travelled with God, sought God's presence, and believed we have known God's ways – we can still be brought up short in amazement. Disaster can bring our world, our hopes crashing down around us. It can feel as though life is over. Yet there we discover God bringing us through to the other side. And God encourages us to let go of our attempts to keep him boxed in and manageable, to let go of our fixed ideas about ourselves, our neighbours and our world. And he invites us to step out of our comfort zones and walk untrodden paths, with no idea where we are going, but knowing in our hearts that God is with us.

The message and the mystery of the empty tomb is that nothing, not disaster, cruelty, betrayal illness or death can separate us from the love of God and from his glorious gift of new life in all its fullness. Happy Easter!

With my prayers and blessings for the Easter season

— Rev'd Stephen (Tel:01327 344436)
